

Test 2 topics:

- resultant of force systems and reduction to a given point
- equilibrium and support reactions of planar rigid bodies. Loads may include distributed loads. You have to be able to write the equations in matrix form; and you have to be able to perform calculations with parameters instead of specific numbers.
- center of mass, centroid